

Causes of Death in the Union Army, 1861-65

1. Disease – 224,580

2. Killed in action – 110,100

3. Died as prisoners of war – 30,192

4. Accidents – 24,881

5. Drowned – 4,944

6. Murdered – 520

7. Suicide – 391

8. Sunstroke – 313

9. Executed for desertion or other crimes – 267

10. Executed after being captured by the enemy – 168

11. Other assorted causes – 2,043

12. Cause undocumented or unknown – 12,121

Total Deaths in the Union Army, 1861-65: 389,753

 = 1,000 deaths

Note: World War II (1941-45) was the first American war in which enemy bullets claimed more lives than did disease.