

Alternative Names for the Same Battle

Northern Name	Southern Name	Date
First Bull Run	First Manassas	July 21, 1861
Mill Springs	Fishing Creek	January 19, 1862
Pittsburg Landing	Shiloh	April 6–7, 1862
Second Bull Run	Second Manassas	August 28–30, 1862
Antietam	Sharpsburg	September 17, 1862
Stones River	Murfreesboro	December 31, 1862– January 2, 1863
Olustee	Ocean Pond	February 20, 1864
Opequan Creek	Third Winchester	September 19, 1864
Wilson's Creek	Oak Hills	August 10, 1861
Pea Ridge	Elkhorn Tavern	March 6–8, 1862
Fair Oaks	Seven Pines	May 31–June 1, 1862
South Mountain	Boonsboro	July 8, 1863
Chaplin Hills	Perryville	October 8, 1862
Elk Creek	Honey Springs	July 17, 1863
Sabine Crossroads	Mansfield	April 8, 1864

Note: Northerners tended to name battles after geographical features (particularly rivers), while Southerners tended to name them after nearby towns.

For the majority of these battles, the Northern name is in widest usage today. The exceptions are Shiloh, Third Winchester, Seven Pines, Perryville, and Mansfield (where the Southern name is more widely used) and Stones River/Murfreesboro and Pea Ridge/Elkhorn Tavern (where both names are still commonly used).