

Resources, North and South, 1860

Population

North: 22,300,000 (21,870,000 free whites; 430,000 slaves)

South: 9,100,000 (5,400,000 free whites; 3,500,000 slaves)

Factory Workers

North: 1,300,000

South: 110,000

Factories

North: 110,000

South: 1,800

Coal Production

North: 13,680,000 tons

South: 650,000 tons

Firearms Production

North: $2,290,000

South: $73,000

Cotton Production

North: 43,000 bales

South: 5,344,000 bales

Shipping Tonnage

North: 4,600,000

South: 290,000

Railroad Mileage

North: 22,000

South: 9,000

Bank Deposits

North: $207,000,000

South: $47,000,000

each = 1,000,000 free white citizens

each = 1,000,000 slaves

= 100,000 factory workers

= 10,000 factories

= 1,000,000 tons of coal

= $50,000 in firearms

= 250,000 cotton bales

= 500,000 tons shipped

= 2,000 miles

= $10 million