

Week 8: The Confederate Nation/The Union's Civil War

Questions

1. Discuss the strengths and weaknesses of the PRESENCE of a healthy political party system in the North and the ABSENCE of one in the South.

2. Compare and Contrast the Northern and Southern homefronts in terms of financing the war, agriculture and manufacturing. Begin to use the material from the two questions on this week's study guide to answer the question: "Why did the North win the Civil War?"

3. How does the War impact Northern labor? How crucial are those Northern laborers to the Union victory?

Key Terms

- Home front
- Copperheads
- Conscription/Draft in the USA
- Writ of Habeas Corpus
- Edwin M. Stanton
- Confederate Economy
- Dissent in the Confederacy
- Greenbacks

The Civil War displaced millions of civilians, among them the family shown in the picture (bottom left). The war also triggered urban riots in both the North and the South, including the Richmond Bread Riots (top) and the New York City Draft Riots (middle), each took place in 1863. These uprisings were caused, in part, by the economic privations associated with the war as both sides labored to pay their bills and to keep their economies afloat. One expedient used by both governments was the printing of paper currency, "Bluebacks" in the South and "Greenbacks" in the North (bottom right).
